

Ten Useful Newsletters for Accountants

Accountancy Newsletters Worth Reading

The world of accountancy is rapidly evolving and so is the range of newsletters and podcasts available to support accountancy professionals through these times.

The Accountancy team at Industry Slice have gathered links to some of the best accountancy newsletters here in one place, so you can browse and see which ones will help you keep up.

Presented to you in alphabetical order.

(1) Accounting Slice

Accountancy Slice delivers the latest, most relevant and useful intelligence to accountants, practice owners, auditors, CFOs and accounting influencers, each weekday morning.

(2) Accounting Today

Accounting Today provides readers with online business news for the accounting community, offering breaking news, in-depth features, and a host of resources and services.

(3) Accounting WEB

One for the 21st century accountant, Accounting WEB focuses on the newest technologies and concepts in the field, from software to law and ethics. Readers are encouraged to share opinions, tips and tricks and daily frustrations.

(4) AICPA Insights

The world's largest professional organization for accountants produces this blog. Written by AICPA staffers and other accounting experts, accountants can turn to AICPA Insights for information on everything, from mundane issues like passing the CPA exams to the difficulties of preparing for the tax and accounting impact of natural disasters.

(5) The CPA Journal

This newsletter has been published for over 85 years. The Journal provides analysis, perspective, and debate on the issues that affect the CPA profession. Major topics include accounting and auditing, taxation, personal financial planning, finance, technology, and professional ethics.

(6) CPA Letter Daily

This newsletter, published by the AICPA, covers the 10-12 most important stories in business, finance and accounting, as well as AICPA information. CPA Letter Daily's editors scan hundreds of publications and websites, selecting the most relevant and important news so you don't have to.

(7) Richard Murphy (Tax and Political Economy)

Richard Murphy, a chartered accountant who campaigns for tax reform with the aim of relieving poverty, is unique in the world of accountancy because he argues for more tax on those who can pay (generally called the rich) and less on those who cannot pay (the poor, in other words).

(8) Rita Keller

Rita Keller, a respected veteran CPA, blogger, and speaker, is repeatedly named Top 100 most influential people in accounting. Ms Keller's daily blog posts share lessons she has learned from her work experience on practice management and administration issues.

(9) The Accounting Onion

You can become a more remarkable educator in just ten minutes a day, claims The Ten Minute Teacher Podcast. Whenever you listen, the best and brightest educators and idea creators from around the world will inspire you. That's their aim. See what you think.

(10) UHY Hacker Young | Tax blog

UHY, a group of accountants and business advisers, delivers a blog that covers all the latest tax issues and how these issues could affect you, including news of all announcements regarding investigations and tax litigation.

If you only subscribe to one newsletter on this list, then we recommend Accountancy Slice. The team's focus on cutting through the abundance of information helps you gain key knowledge around the sector quickly.
